New £11m business and food park plan

By Loughlan Campbell

PLANS for an £11 million edge-of-town business park and service station creating hundreds of jobs at Milton Interchange have been unveiled.

The development with a hotel, four restaurants and a 10-building business park would be built on 12.7 acres of land by the junction with the A34 and the A4130 - next to McDonald's, Premier Inn hotel, and BP petrol station.

The project, by Abingdon-based Mays Properties and Wallingford-based Minscombe Properties, has been in the planning stages for six years.

Mays Properties director Richard May said: "We're very excited about it and it's a very interesting project which has involved a great deal of time and effort so far.

"It really is a fascinating project as it will act as a nice environment for people wanting to relax off the A34."

The developers submitted early plans to Vale of White Horse District Council on November 30 asking if an environmental impact assessment need to be drawn up, but a full planning application has not yet been filed.

Minscombe Properties director Frank Bailey said: "It feels good to finally have an application submitted after all this time.

"We are looking forward to this open-minded development finally moving forward."

Minscombe would be in charge of the business park

Victim stabbed on his wife's birthday

By Alex Ballinger and Loughlan Campbell

AN INQUEST into the death of an Oxford dad-of-two stabbed in Abingdon's Poundland opened at Oxfordshire Coroners' Court yesterday.

It revealed antiques dealer Justin Skrebowski was stabbed in the back and died on his wife's birthday.

The 61-year-old, of Buckler Road in Sunnymead, was a customer in the Bury Street bargain store when he was attacked last Monday in front of horrified shoppers.

Abingdon and Oxford West MP Nicola Blackwood spoke in Parliament yesterday calling for tighter controls on offensive weapons in shops.

She said: "The tragic stabbing in Abingdon Poundland last week has shocked local residents.

"I'm sure the whole house will want to join me in sending out condolences to the family of the father-of-two.

"Does the Prime Minister now agree it's time for Government and retailers to work together to make it more difficult for offenders to get hold of offensive weapons?"

Prime Minister David Cameron responded: "I was very shocked by what happened in Abingdon and my heart goes out to the family of those who suffered.

"I think she's right to ask the question about offensive weapons and how available they are, and I'm very happy to look at that."

Trevor Joyce, 36, of Franklyn Close, Abingdon, was charged last Tuesday with murder and appeared at Oxford Crown Court on Friday.

A statement, released on behalf of Mr Skrebowski's family, read: "On Monday, December 7, our beloved Justin Skrebowski was killed in Abingdon.

"He was an optimistic and forward looking man, a deeply caring husband and a very proud and loving father to his children.

"It seems very hard that such a kind and caring individual should be snatched away from his family and friends in such a terrible way.

"The family greatly appreciates all the concern and sympathy expressed by the public and the media. As we are all in deep shock and distress, we would now appreciate a quiet period of mourning."

• Police outside the Charter car park near Bury Street

Mr Salter said: "On Monday, December 7, he was stabbed while in Poundland in Abingdon.

"Sadly he died at the scene.

"Mr Skrebowski was shopping in Poundland when the victim was seen to be stabbed in the back and fall to the floor."

A post mortem gave a preliminary cause of death was a haemorrhage due to being stabbed in the pelvis.

Two witnesses inside the shop, who asked not to be named, described the attacker shouting and swearing as he seized two knives from a shelf.

He then allegedly said: 'You got what you deserve' and attacked Mr Skrebowski, before leaving and waving a knife in the face of an elderly man sitting on a bench outside the shop.

Flowers were left in tribute to Mr Skrebowski outside Poundland.

Joyce spoke only to confirm his name at Oxford Crown Court on Friday. He appeared by video link from Bullingdon Prison near Bicester during a short hearing at 10am.

He was wearing a green and grey tracksuit and responded 'yes' to verify his name.

A plea and case management hearing was earmarked for March 7 at Oxford Crown Court.

If the case goes to trial a five-day trial was pencilled in to start on June 6.

Thames Valley Police announced on Friday that it had voluntarily referred itself to the Independent Police Complaints Commission (IPCC) following the incident because it had recent contact with someone involved in the case and is awaiting the IPCC's decision.

Body found

ABINGDON: A 96-year-old man was found in his home near Abingdon after a milkman discovered a note on the front door saying a dead person was inside.

The inquest opening held at Oxfordshire Coroner's Court yesterday heard Arthur Sprigg was found in his house at Gozzards Ford on December 12.

Oxfordshire Coroner Darren Salter said: "Notes were found at the bed which suggested he'd taken his own life." A full inquest is to be held on April 13.

Teenager attacked by two men at Morrisons

AN 18-YEAR-OLD was assaulted by two men in Carterton after they accused him of kicking their car.

The incident happened at around 1pm on December 6 on a service road leading from Black Bourton Road into Morrisons car park.

The two offenders were seen getting out of a small silver car and pushing and punching the victim before members of the public intervened and called the police.

Part of the car's registration is X692.

Both offenders are white and one was aged between 29 and 35, 6ft 2ins tall, slim, with short dark hair.

His accomplice was the driver of the car and was aged between 29 and 35 years old.

He was shorter and stockier, he had short blond hair and was possibly wearing a white and red t-shirt, and also spoke with a northern accent.

Council dubbed 'failure' as the budget is delayed

By Loughlan Campbell

DIDCOT Town Council have been slammed as a 'complete failure' by one of their own councillors after it could not agree on a budget.

The council's finance and general purposes committee met at Didcot Civic Hall on Monday to discuss next year's budget, of which a draft suggested the council charge an extra 11 per cent for council tax.

However, after little discussion on the subject, councillors decided to scrap the draft budget, meaning a new one will have to be put together days before the January deadline next month in a special council meeting.

Labour councillor Margaret Davies said it will be the latest the council has ever decided on a budget.

She told the Guardian: "The council have completely failed to put together a budget. Councillors are not working together and it's having a big impact on processes which should be straightforward.

"It's a failure, make no mistake."

Charlie Robertson, leader of the council, said he and the committee's chairman, Simon Clarke, were making last minute amendments to the budget ahead of the meeting.

He said: "I wanted to make an amendment to it to help cut down expenditure. We didn't think this amendment reflected our commitment to residents.

"When the electorate of Didcot elected in 17 Conservative councillors, we pledged to manage the council's money sensibly and that is what we will do."

The budget proposed increasing the council tax base for Didcot, which would have meant Band D properties would have gone up to £115.90 from next year, an annual rise of 15 per cent.

Cllr Robertson added: "I want to freeze council tax. I do not want to see it increase by double figures."

The rejected budget would also have seen the town council increase its expenditure by just over £80,000 to £1.1million, despite a drop in the council's income of just over £50,000 due to the retraction of a South Oxfordshire District Council grant for next year.

The increases include more than £5,000 on IT maintenance and the council's website, a £6,000 rise in the maintenance of Ladygrove Park, a £2,000 increase in CCTV expenditure and an increase in staff salaries.

The council has £675,856 funds in reserve.

Town councillor Anthony Dearlove said: "This budget needs adjusting. A lot of it needs to be looked at and I think we need to look at all areas that suggest an increase and then come back with a better budget."

• Conservative town leader Charlie Robertson (left) and councillor Margaret Davies (right)

Over 170 jobs expected

Mr May said they have already been 'flooded with offers' from firms hoping to rent out parts of the business park and companies interested in opening on the services site.

He added: "We were overwhelmed when it came to the demand. It really is about providing high quality road-side services."

The services would have two drive-thru restaurants, two restaurants and a three-storey 67-bed hotel which would have a sandwich operator and newsagent on the ground floor.

Mr May said 170 jobs would be created through work at the service park and more would be created at the business park, but how many would depend on which businesses move in.

The business park plans include a mixture of four two-storey buildings and six one-storey buildings.

The site was allocated in Vale's Local Plan 2031 as an area for retail development.

And last month the land was earmarked as part of Didcot's new 'Enterprise Zone', by Chancellor George Osborne in his Autumn Statement.

An enterprise zone means companies get tax discounts by moving there and pay their business rates to the council to invest in the local area – rather than the money going to central Government.

County councillor for Didcot Nick Hards said: "The obvious point is that a hotel is really needed for Didcot and this will be an exciting development to look forward to.

"However, I am concerned that this might have an adverse effect on the other hotels planned though the fact that we can get one going will hopefully get the ball rolling."

The plans mean there are now four hotels earmarked for the Didcot area. An eight-storey hotel is planned as part of the £60m Didcot Gateway development in Station Road , a luxury four-star hotel is planned for Milton Gate opposite the site, and a hotel is earmarked for the site of Didcot A Power Station.

Didcot town councillor Margaret Davies, said: "This application is very much like a motorway service station, which reflects the increasing congestion and demand on the A34.

"There has been a need for a site like this since the 70s so it's of no real surprise to me to see a plan like this coming forward."

A planning application could be submitted early next year and work could start next September.

New plaque tribute to RAF pilots killed

A PLAQUE has been dedicated to two RAF Benson officers who lost their lives in a helicopter crash in Afghanistan in October.

Alan Scott, 32, known as Scotty, and Geraint Roberts, 44, known as Roly, were among five killed when their UK Puma MK two crashed while landing at NATO's Resolute Support mission headquarters in Kabul on October 11.

The plaque was unveiled and a ceremony was held at NATOs headquarters in Kabul on Monday where the helicopter crashed.

The wife of Lieutenant Scott, Lisa Scott, said on Facebook: "Thank you all, from the bottom of my heart."

Residents vote in favour of increasing council tax

By Loughlan Campbell

MORE than three-quarters of Oxfordshire residents have voted in favour of increasing council tax in an online poll by Oxfordshire County Council (OCC).

Results of the poll, published last Thursday, show 78 per cent of people would be in favour of upping tax to save services.

The survey was taken as part of a public consultation, called Talking Oxfordshire, in which the public were asked their thoughts on cuts of around £50 million to be made by the council by 2020.

Calls were made by county councillors in October this year for a referendum giving residents the chance to combat cuts by raising council tax.

The council received 549 online responses in the poll.

Of the 78 per who voted to increase tax, 22 per cent said it should be increased by about 10 per cent.

She said: "The results show that there is quite a lot of support for a rise.

"It didn't come as a surprise to me at all and I think this is already making a few waves at the council as it's highlighting the importance of these services we could be losing."

The £50m cuts could mean Oxfordshire's 44 children's centres and seven early intervention hubs could close, as well as the county's recycling centres.

But Cllr Atkins warned while the polls show an increase in support for council tax, it would be trickier to predict if people would vote for it in a ballot booth.

She said: "What residents decide to do when they're actually voting is going to be very different."

Whitehall legislation states if local governments want to increase council tax by two per cent or more they need to hold a local referendum.

Labour county councillor Liz Brighouse called for a referendum in a motion at the county council in November.

Cllr Brighouse was pleased with the outcome of the poll, but said she is 'disappointed' by the fact that only 549 responses to the poll were received, despite the full online consultation receiving 3,361 responses.

She said: "The fact that only a small number responded to that question is extremely disappointing. It's sad that many didn't answer what was a fundamental question."

Holding an Oxfordshire-wide referendum could cost the council £600,000 to £800,000.

The county council are set to discuss the results of the poll and consultation before the budget for next year is decided at full council in February.

Oxford's two new hotels in 24 hours

TWO new hotels costing £17.5 million opened in Oxford within 24 hours of one another this week.

Travelodge's £5.5m hotel in Abingdon Road next to Redbridge Park and Ride opened to the public on Monday.

It was swiftly followed by the launch of the new £12m Hampton by Hilton hotel at the Kassam Stadium in Greater Leys on Tuesday.

The Travelodge has 83 beds and 25 full-time and part-time staff while the Hampton hotel

By Loughlan Campbell

has 103 beds and the same number of staff.

The Hampton had its grand opening on Tuesday, but Travelodge spokesman Nick Dines said their hotel's unveiling was a 'soft launch' ahead of an official opening next month.

He said: "We are delighted that our Oxford Abingdon Road hotel is open in time for Christmas and will enable people to stay near relatives over the festive period."

Plans for the hotel had previously been rejected on two occasions by Oxford City Council due to the building's size, but they were approved a third time in May.

The Hilton's manager Arun Kumar, said: "It's great to be open following the development work and we're now looking forward to welcoming guests to this fantastic new hotel.

"For Hilton to be opening its first hotel in Oxford is also a great reflection on the city which is doing a lot to attract both the business and tourism traveller."

He said 90 per cent of staff for the hotel had been recruited from the Oxford area.

He added: "It's vital that the city can provide suitable accommodation to any new visitors and it will also great for football fans coming to Oxford as we're right next to the stadium."

Trio guilty for drugs offences

• Anthony Williams

Two of the men have been jailed and another is due to be sentenced on January 8.

Anthony Williams, 34, of Luther Street in Oxford, pleaded guilty to possession with intent to supply heroin and cocaine, and for possession of cannabis last Monday.

He was sentenced the same day to three years and six months in jail for the first two offences and two months for the third.

Dzung Nguyen, 22, of no fixed abode, pleaded guilty to possession of cocaine and was jailed for eight months.

Richard Punton, 39, from Moor Avenue in Witney pleaded guilty to possession of heroin and cocaine and is due to be sentenced next month.

The three men were arrested in June after police raided a property in Moor Avenue on June 12, 2014.

DC Adrian Brooksbank said: "A significant quantity of Class A drugs was recovered and therefore removed from our streets."

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Gems galore as treasure finds rise by half

THE amount of treasure found in Oxfordshire has risen by 46 per cent in the last year.

Oxfordshire County Council's Museum Service has so far recorded 41 cases of treasure discovered this year, up from 18 last year.

And Oxfordshire's 25,000th artefact was found this month.

The discovery was a very rare Roman coin found in the Hanneys in south Oxfordshire, which is only the third of its kind ever discovered.

Anni Byard, Finds Liaison officer at the council, said: "Oxfordshire has been a treasure trove over the years and there is no sign that this trend is going to dry up anytime soon. By working closely with metal detector users and others who offer their finds for recording, we really are rewriting our county's history."

The Museum Service now has more than 100,000 objects in its collection. It acquires treasure usually by grant applications and fundraising.

Some of the treasure is on show at the council's Oxfordshire Museum in Woodstock.

Lorraine Lindsay Gale, council cabinet member for culture, said: "Television programmes have encouraged a wider public interest in archaeology."

Man who dumped two tankers of sewage fined

By Alex Ballinger

A MAN has been fined more than £11,000 for dumping two tanker loads of sewage in Carterton.

The case was the biggest fly tipping prosecution West Oxfordshire District Council (WODC) had dealt with.

Michael Ridgway, of Hinstock, near Market Drayton in Shropshire, was fined of £11,186 at Banbury Magistrates' Court on Tuesday.

WODC cabinet member for the environment, David Harvey, said: "Dumping effluent in this way poses a health risk and makes this one of the most irresponsible and appalling incidents of fly-tipping that we have ever come across in our district."

He added: "This successful prosecution is largely down to hard work by the staff."

The waste was discovered on September 1 last year flowing under portacabins in the construction compound at West Oxfordshire Business and Retail Park.

Using CCTV footage the council identified the only vehicle capable of moving the waste that had visited the park during weekend it was found.

The footage also showed that when entering the site the tanker had all it's wheels on the ground but when it was leaving the second axle was raised, suggesting a load had been deposited.

Ridgway was tracked down as the vehicle's owner.

He had been employed to remove toilet and shower waste from portaloos.

During an interview he said he had been paid cash by a man named Paul.

Ridgway accepted that he had not checked if Paul, who he said had now returned to Poland, was a registered waste carrier.

Ridgway was charged with fly tipping, breaching his duty of care in waste disposal and not having the relevant waste transfer notes.

During the sentencing the magistrate said Ridgway's behaviour was reckless and had caused a significant local impact.

He was fined £6,000, ordered to pay £3,561 in compensation to the landowner, another £1,325 in compensation to the council, £180 criminal court compensation and £120 victim surcharge.

Found guilty

OXFORD: A man from Botley was found guilty of drugs offences including offering to sell methadone and possession of cannabis/cannabis resin.

Cameron Sephton, 33, of Gibbs Crescent, was convicted by a unanimous jury at Oxford Crown Court last Thursday.

He was arrested on January 6 after a raid on his home.

A majority jury also found him guilty of possession with intent to supply methadone.

He is due to be sentenced in April, on a date to be set.

B&N Coronet Bingo

Coronet Bingo Club in Didcot has recently undergone a major refurbishment offering superb new modern facilities in keeping with the art deco feel of the original building. In 2014 the Government cut Bingo tax with a proviso that clubs would reinvest that money into their businesses. Coronet Bingo has done just that renovating the front of the building and upgrading the foyer, toilets, food kiosk and fruit machine zones. The centre piece is the new Lounge Bar that is segregated from the main hall creating a stylish and contemporary space to enjoy before, during and after Bingo. Manager Laurie Carpenter said "Earlier this year we offered a survey to our customers asking what they liked and what they didn't about our club. This revamp of the club and the new games that we offer is in response to those answers. The Coronet has been in my family for over 35 years and I would hope our customers can enjoy these new facilities for many years to come."

- Biggest ever win in our club was £392k
- Every session we play for prizes up to £250k
- Every week we have many winners walking away with prizes into the thousands of pounds. Last week alone we paid out just under £30k
- Bingo is a social activity for people of all ages from 18-80 and beyond! The club is not only run by 3 generations of family but we often have 3 generations of family playing here together.

Funding granted

OXFORD: Funding of £130,00 to help run holiday activities for young people will continue for the 11th year, Oxford City Council announced on Friday.

The money helps run activities in Easter, summer and Christmas holidays for eight to 19-year-olds from Barton, Wood Farm, The Leys, Littlemore, Rose Hill, Northway, Cutteslowe and East Oxford.

Test results up

OXON: Test results for 11-year-olds in reading, writing and maths tests have risen on last year, Oxfordshire County Council has said.

The council announced on Friday 81 per cent of 11-year-olds were achieving Level 4+ in the three core subjects, up from 79 per cent last year.

School places

OXON: Parents of children born between September 1, 2011, and August 31, 2012, are being reminded not to miss the primary school application deadline on January 15.

Applications also need to be made for those born between September 1, 2008, and August 31, 2009, at infant school who are moving to primary or junior school.

NHS health trust 'failed to investigate 1,000 deaths'

By Alex Ballinger

AN NHS trust which operated in Oxfordshire has been criticised by the health minister after it allegedly 'failed to properly investigate deaths of more than 1,000 patients' since 2011, according to leaked documents.

Southern Health NHS Foundation Trust was found to have 'a failure of leadership' according to a leaked report obtained by the BBC.

Health minister Jeremy Hunt said in Parliament last Thursday it was 'utterly unacceptable'.

Headington 18-year-old Connor Sparrowhawk drowned at Oxford learning disability unit Slade House in 2013 run by the trust,which has now shut.

Mr Hunt said: "I would like to offer my deepest condolences to Connor's mother, Sara Ryan, who has campaigned tirelessly to get to the bottom of these issues. It is totally and utterly unacceptable that, according to the leaked report, only one per cent of the unexpected deaths of patients with learning difficulties were investigated."

Some details from the report were first made public last Thursday, but it has not yet been published.

According to the BBC the investigation was commissioned by NHS England and carried out by audit firm Mazars.

The report allegedly states 10,306 people died while in the trust's care between April 2011 and March 2015, with 1,454 deaths unexpected.

Of the unexpected deaths 272 were treated as critical incidents, with 195 being treated as incidents requiring investigation.

Trust spokesman Natalie Duffy said: "The board has fully accepted the processes for investigating and reporting a patient death, whilst improving, needed to be better.

"They had not always been up to the high standards our patients, their families and carers deserve.

Santa runners paint town red

• Crowds warming up

THOUSANDS donned their best beards and red outfits on Sunday for the 13th annual Santa Run through the streets of Oxford.

A total of 2,200 people dressed up for the two-mile festive run to raise money for Oxford children and young peoples' hospice Helen and Douglas House.

Mr Tandy said: "Lauren would have loved what we did. If she was still here now she would be helping to raise funds for the hospice too."

Designs for £75m station makeover unveiled

RESIDENTS have until December 29 to vote for their favourite of six designs unveiled as options for a £75 million transformation of Oxford Rail Station.

The designs published last Thursday were submitted by different architect firms which will remain anonymous until the winner is chosen.

A masterplan setting out a vision to revamp the station was outlined in July last year.

Project partners Oxford City Council, Oxfordshire County Council and Network Rail described the designs as 'world class'.

> It is crucial if we are to maintain Oxford's status as a world class city

By Loughlan Campbell

Ian Hudspeth, leader of the county council, said: "Our work outside Oxford's train station at Frideswide Square has transformed the gateway to the city, the redevelopment of the station is the next logical step.

"It is crucial if we are to maintain Oxford's status as a world class city. Further investment in this critical transport interchange will be needed to help businesses thrive and ensure Oxfordshire remains an attractive location for investment."

An exhibition of the plans launched at Oxford Central Library in Westgate on Monday and is online at oxford.gov.uk/stationcomp

City council leader Bob Price said: "The regeneration of the station area is a key site in the west end, which if delivered, would make significant contributions to Oxford's economy."

He added both councils are working with partners and the Department of Transport to try and secure cash to fund the station project.

Work could start in 2020.

Last year's masterplan earmarked extra tracks, a third platform, a bus terminal, hotel, shops and a multi-storey car park off Becket Street as part of the project.

Cllr Hudspeth added: "Testing these design concepts with the public now is an important step in our journey towards achieving the necessary investment required to deliver our ambition to have a world-class station."

Once voting closes a judging panel will narrow down the options to three, before a final design is chosen.

Metal dealer who skipped court fined thousands

A SCRAP metal dealer who did not to appear at court twice has been fined £2,500 for failing to produce records of the metal he transported.

He breached the scrap Metal Dealers Act twice.

Stefan was spotted by police collecting scrap metal in Abingdon and officers from the Vale of White Horse District Council found Stefan could not produce any records of the metal he collected.

To prevent scrap metal thefts, dealers are required by law to keep records of where the metal comes from and where is disposed of.

Stefan was due at a court hearing on November 9 but did not show up so the case was heard in his absence.

He was also ordered to pay costs and charges of £980.

Vale Council cabinet member Roger Cox said: "The rise in recent years of metal thefts has meant that scrap dealers now to keep detailed records showing where their metal came from.

"There really is no excuse for not having proper records."

Woman jumped 'in front of train'

A 51-YEAR-OLD woman threw herself in front of a freight train at Didcot Parkway railway station, Oxford Coroner's Court heard last Thursday.

The therapist, from Orpington in Bromley, died on Thursday, December 3.

By Loughlan Campbell

A statement from assistant coroner, David Freeman, said Debbie had been taken to Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital in Headington under the Mental Health Act on Wednesday, December 2, the day before her death.

It said Mrs Yalcin drove to the Ramada hotel just off the M40 in Oxfordshire before calling her husband Ahmet Yalcin and telling him she intended to harm herself.

Mr Yalcin, 46, rang Thames Valley Police who arrived at the hotel the same day to find Mrs Yalcin had cuts to her neck and wrists.

She was taken to hospital where staff arranged for her to be taken to a mental health hospital in Bromley the next day.

However nurses rang the police at around 7am the following morning after finding her missing and an appeal to find her was launched.

Oxfordshire Coroner Darren Salter gave a cause of death as multiple injuries.

The inquest into her death was adjourned to by held in front of a jury on June 14.

First-of-its-kind city flood map launched online

By Loughlan Campbell

RESIDENTS at risk of flooding can monitor water levels across Oxford online through a pioneering new flooding network system.

The interactive map, launched last week at map.flood.network, has been developed over the last two years by Oxford-based Nominet and the Oxford Flood Network.

Using 15 sensors from the Network and six sensors from the Environment Agency, residents can check water levels at various points across the city.

The sensors measure the distance they are from the water surface which is then fed onto the online map, updating itself every 15 minutes to monitor the flood risk for that area.

Oxford Flood Network director Ben Ward, who lives near Folly Bridge, said: "Oxford is the first city in the county to have a network like this and we hope that people will use it to share information about any potential flooding in the city.

"We are trying to fill in the gaps between the Environmental Agency's sensors and our own and that's where residents come into play."

Hundreds of homes and businesses were flooded in Oxford in January and February last year and major transport routes Abingdon Road and Botley Road were closed temporarily.

There are 4,500 properties in Oxford at a one per cent or higher annual risk of flooding.

The Network is asking for volunteers to come forward to have sensors installed in their back gardens to increase the accuracy of the map so that people can know when and where exactly the water is rising.

Mr Ward added: "It's pretty pioneering, however some of the technology behind it is the same you would get on a parking sensor."

The online map is colour coded to show how high the water levels in Oxford are - running from green for low water levels to red for high water levels.

Russell Haworth, CEO of Nominet, said: "If this can work in Oxford, it can work anywhere and recent events have underlined the importance of effective monitoring systems when flood waters begin to rise."

The companies are working on real-time updates which show the water level each time a sensor reports in.

The map is in its beta version so residents can make recommendations via the online map.

If the map proves successful in Oxford, the Network could roll out across the UK.

The Oxford Flood Alleviation Scheme project team is developing different options for a flood relief channel, including different routes and sizes.

It is expected to pass west of Oxford from Botley Road to Sandford Lock.

Public events to present the options are to be held from 2.30pm until 7pm on January 19 at Oxford Town Hall in St Aldate's, on January 20 at Abbey House in Abingdon, and on January 22 at South Oxford Community Centre in Lake Street.

Building work could start in 2018 and take two to three years to complete which would revolutionize the flood defences in Oxford.

Man drowned

OXFORD: A 54-year-old Oxford man died after drowning in the River Thames near Iffley Lock, an inquest at Oxford Coroners' Court in New Road heard on Thursday.

Frank Rothnie, (pictured) who lived on a canal boat moored in Mill Lane, Oxford, was last seen on November 15 leaving the Prince of Wales pub in Church Way, Iffley village.

A full inquest is to be held on May 11 at the same court.

Thousands voice view on council cuts for the county

THOUSANDS of Oxfordshire residents responded to a public consultation on how to deal with £50 million of Oxfordshire County Council cuts until 2020.

The council had 3,631 online responses to the consultation, titled Talking Oxfordshire, between its launch on October 20 and its end on November 29.

More than 90 budget savings were proposed. The main concerns voiced were about protecting the most vulnerable and about proposed children centre closures.

Council leader Ian Hudspeth said: "These are difficult times for local government and there are tough choices ahead. The consultation feedback will help share those choices. We've listened and heard what people had to say.

"In the main we feel that in giving their feedback people understood and acknowledged the extent of the financial issues faced."

The council was handed four petitions of 3,432 signatures.

The council's cabinet is due to recommend a budget on January 26, which would then be considered on February 16.

This budget would be revisited and potentially altered each year until 2020.

The £50m savings are on top of £292m planned by the end of 2018 by the council.

WIN tickets to the unmissable London Classic Car Show

THE LONDON CLASSIC CAR SHOW
18 - 21 FEB 2016 | SHOW | EXCEL LONDON

A spectacular new international classic car show took the country by storm last January – now it's back even bigger and even better than ever before. And you could be there, too, as we have five pairs of Sunday tickets to giveaway in this very special promotion.

Staged at the ultra-modern ExCeL exhibition centre in Docklands from 18-21 February 2016, the London Classic Car is the capital's biggest and best celebration of automotive history.

Crammed with innovative features, mouth-watering classic cars plus a star-studded list of celebrity visitors, the inaugural show was such a resounding success that the follow-up will be nearly twice as big.

The event's centrepiece is the 'The Grand Avenue', a central boulevard along which many iconic classics are driven. Everything from genuine Formula 1 Grand Prix racers to some of the most sought-after supercars from yesteryear take to the high-octane catwalk allowing visitors to see and hear their favourites in action. For 2016, The Grand Avenue will be even grander with a significant increase in track distance.

Closing date: Friday, February 5

Another of the eye-catching additions for 2016 is an entire new hall dedicated to prestige and performance classics with privately owned examples representing the country's 25 leading car clubs helping to create an entire show within a show. Visitors, too, will be treated to period entertainment to continue the hall's retro vibe.

Tickets are now available from the official show website: www.thelondonclassiccarshow.co.uk. Adult admittance – if tickets are purchased in advance – is priced at just £23.

WIN TICKETS!

We have 5 pairs of tickets to this great show and to be in with a chance of winning one all you have to do is answer this simple question:

Q: Where will the London Classic Car Show be staged?

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Caremark, a leading provider of care in Oxfordshire

Local care company Caremark is one of the leading providers of domiciliary care in West Oxfordshire and Cherwell. Celebrating six years of providing care we would like to thank all our clients for their continued support.

Caremark offers a specialised care service for people who need care and support with day-to-day life, but want to stay in their own home rather than enter a care home.

A little care and support can be all it takes for someone to be able to remain living in their own home, surrounded by family, friends, familiar comforts and taking part in their normal day to day activities.

Finding the right care provider is not always easy. At Caremark we work hard to ensure that our team of trained, experienced and qualified care staff provide a more personal approach to meeting your needs.

Offering individually tailored care programmes, we ensure that we can meet all needs, from a 30 minute visit once a week to full 24 hour, round-the-clock, live-in support. Other services available include personal care, respite care, companionship, help with medication, shopping, meal preparation, light housework and taking part in social activities.

"My mother has complete confidence in her carers and looks forward to their calls – nothing is too much trouble either for the carers or the friendly office team."

Caremark is based in Woodstock and provides its services throughout West Oxfordshire and Cherwell. We are regulated by the CQC, and are an approved provider for Oxford County Council. Our friendly service enables clients to remain in the familiar surroundings and comfort of their own home, receiving regular care visits and services to suit their individual needs. Our aim is to support clients with their own choices about the way they wish to lead their lives.

The attentive, practical and compassionate care we provide is aimed at helping our clients to live happy, fulfilled lives, as independently as possible. We believe that is what everyone deserves, whatever their personal circumstances.

Caremark®

The mark of excellent care

Whatever care you need – whenever you need it, Caremark can help.

Would you like to become a carer?

- Are you caring and compassionate?
- Would you like a fulfilling job and get paid for it?
- Do you have free time on your hands?
- Have your children grown up, and you are now looking for full or part time work?

As a growing business, we have vacancies for Care Assistants in most areas. We offer excellent pay starting from £9.50 per hour + 30p mileage + paid holidays

Evening, Weekend and Bank Holiday enhancements range from £10 per hour to £15.50.

You must be committed to delivering the highest quality care, and understand the importance of dignity and respect for our clients. You must be reliable, flexible and able to work alternate weekends. You will need access to your own transport.

Applicants of all ages welcome, previous experience is not required as full and comprehensive training will be provided.

We will provide you with a caring friendly environment, excellent accredited training, and free on going training and support. Also free uniform and a DBS refund after completing six months.

We are committed to developing our staff and offer opportunities for promotion.

Would you like to become a carer?

If you are you caring and compassionate, and would like to work in a fulfilling job with excellent rates of pay, then please contact us to discuss what vacancies are available.

For more information, please call 01993 810918,

The Snow Dragon:

Spoilt Billy learns a very valuable lesson

BILLY the Goat is used to getting everything he wants from his parents so when he doesn't, he steals from his friends.

On New Year's Eve he is looking forward to the legendary Snow Dragon's annual visit to bring him even more goodies during the night.

But when he bumps into some hungry wolves in the forest, New Year's Day seems a long way off.

Will Billy escape? Has he been naughty of nice?

The story unfolds when 'The Snow Dragon' visits Didcot's Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot running from Saturday, December 19, until Christmas Eve.

"A good story is a good story whatever the age and it is a lovely experience to share with your young ones, which can give you plenty to talk about," actor Alistair Chisholm, who plays Spike the Hedgehog, told the Guardian.

"I'm really looking forward to it."

It stars Louise Mai Newberry as Rosie the Piglet, William Croft as Billy the Goat and Alistair who also plays Billy's dad and a wolf.

By James Richings

The tale is a Tall Stories production, the same company that brought The Gruffalo and The Snail and the Whale to the stage.

Aimed at ages three and up, the show includes catchy songs, special lighting and an imaginative set.

"I love performing for young people and families and it is lovely to part of a family's build-up to Christmas," Alistair said.

"Youngsters can experience stories in a safe environment with their adult, and in a world of many distractions. It is great to be able to sit and give all your concentration over to one thing."

Tickets cost £7 to £12.50.

A relaxed version of the show will be held at 2pm on Tuesday, December 22, for children on the autistic spectrum or other disabilities.

'Annie' on stage

The musical started on December 15, and stars former 'I'd do Anything' winner Jodie Prenger as Miss Hannigan.

Tickets cost £12.50 to £43.50.

Covers night

HIPPY Haze will be performing at The Dolphin in Wallingford on Sunday, December 20.

The Oxford based covers group will play songs from the likes of The Kinks, Bob Dylan, Jimi Hendrix, The Rolling Stones and more.

The free event starts at 8.30pm.

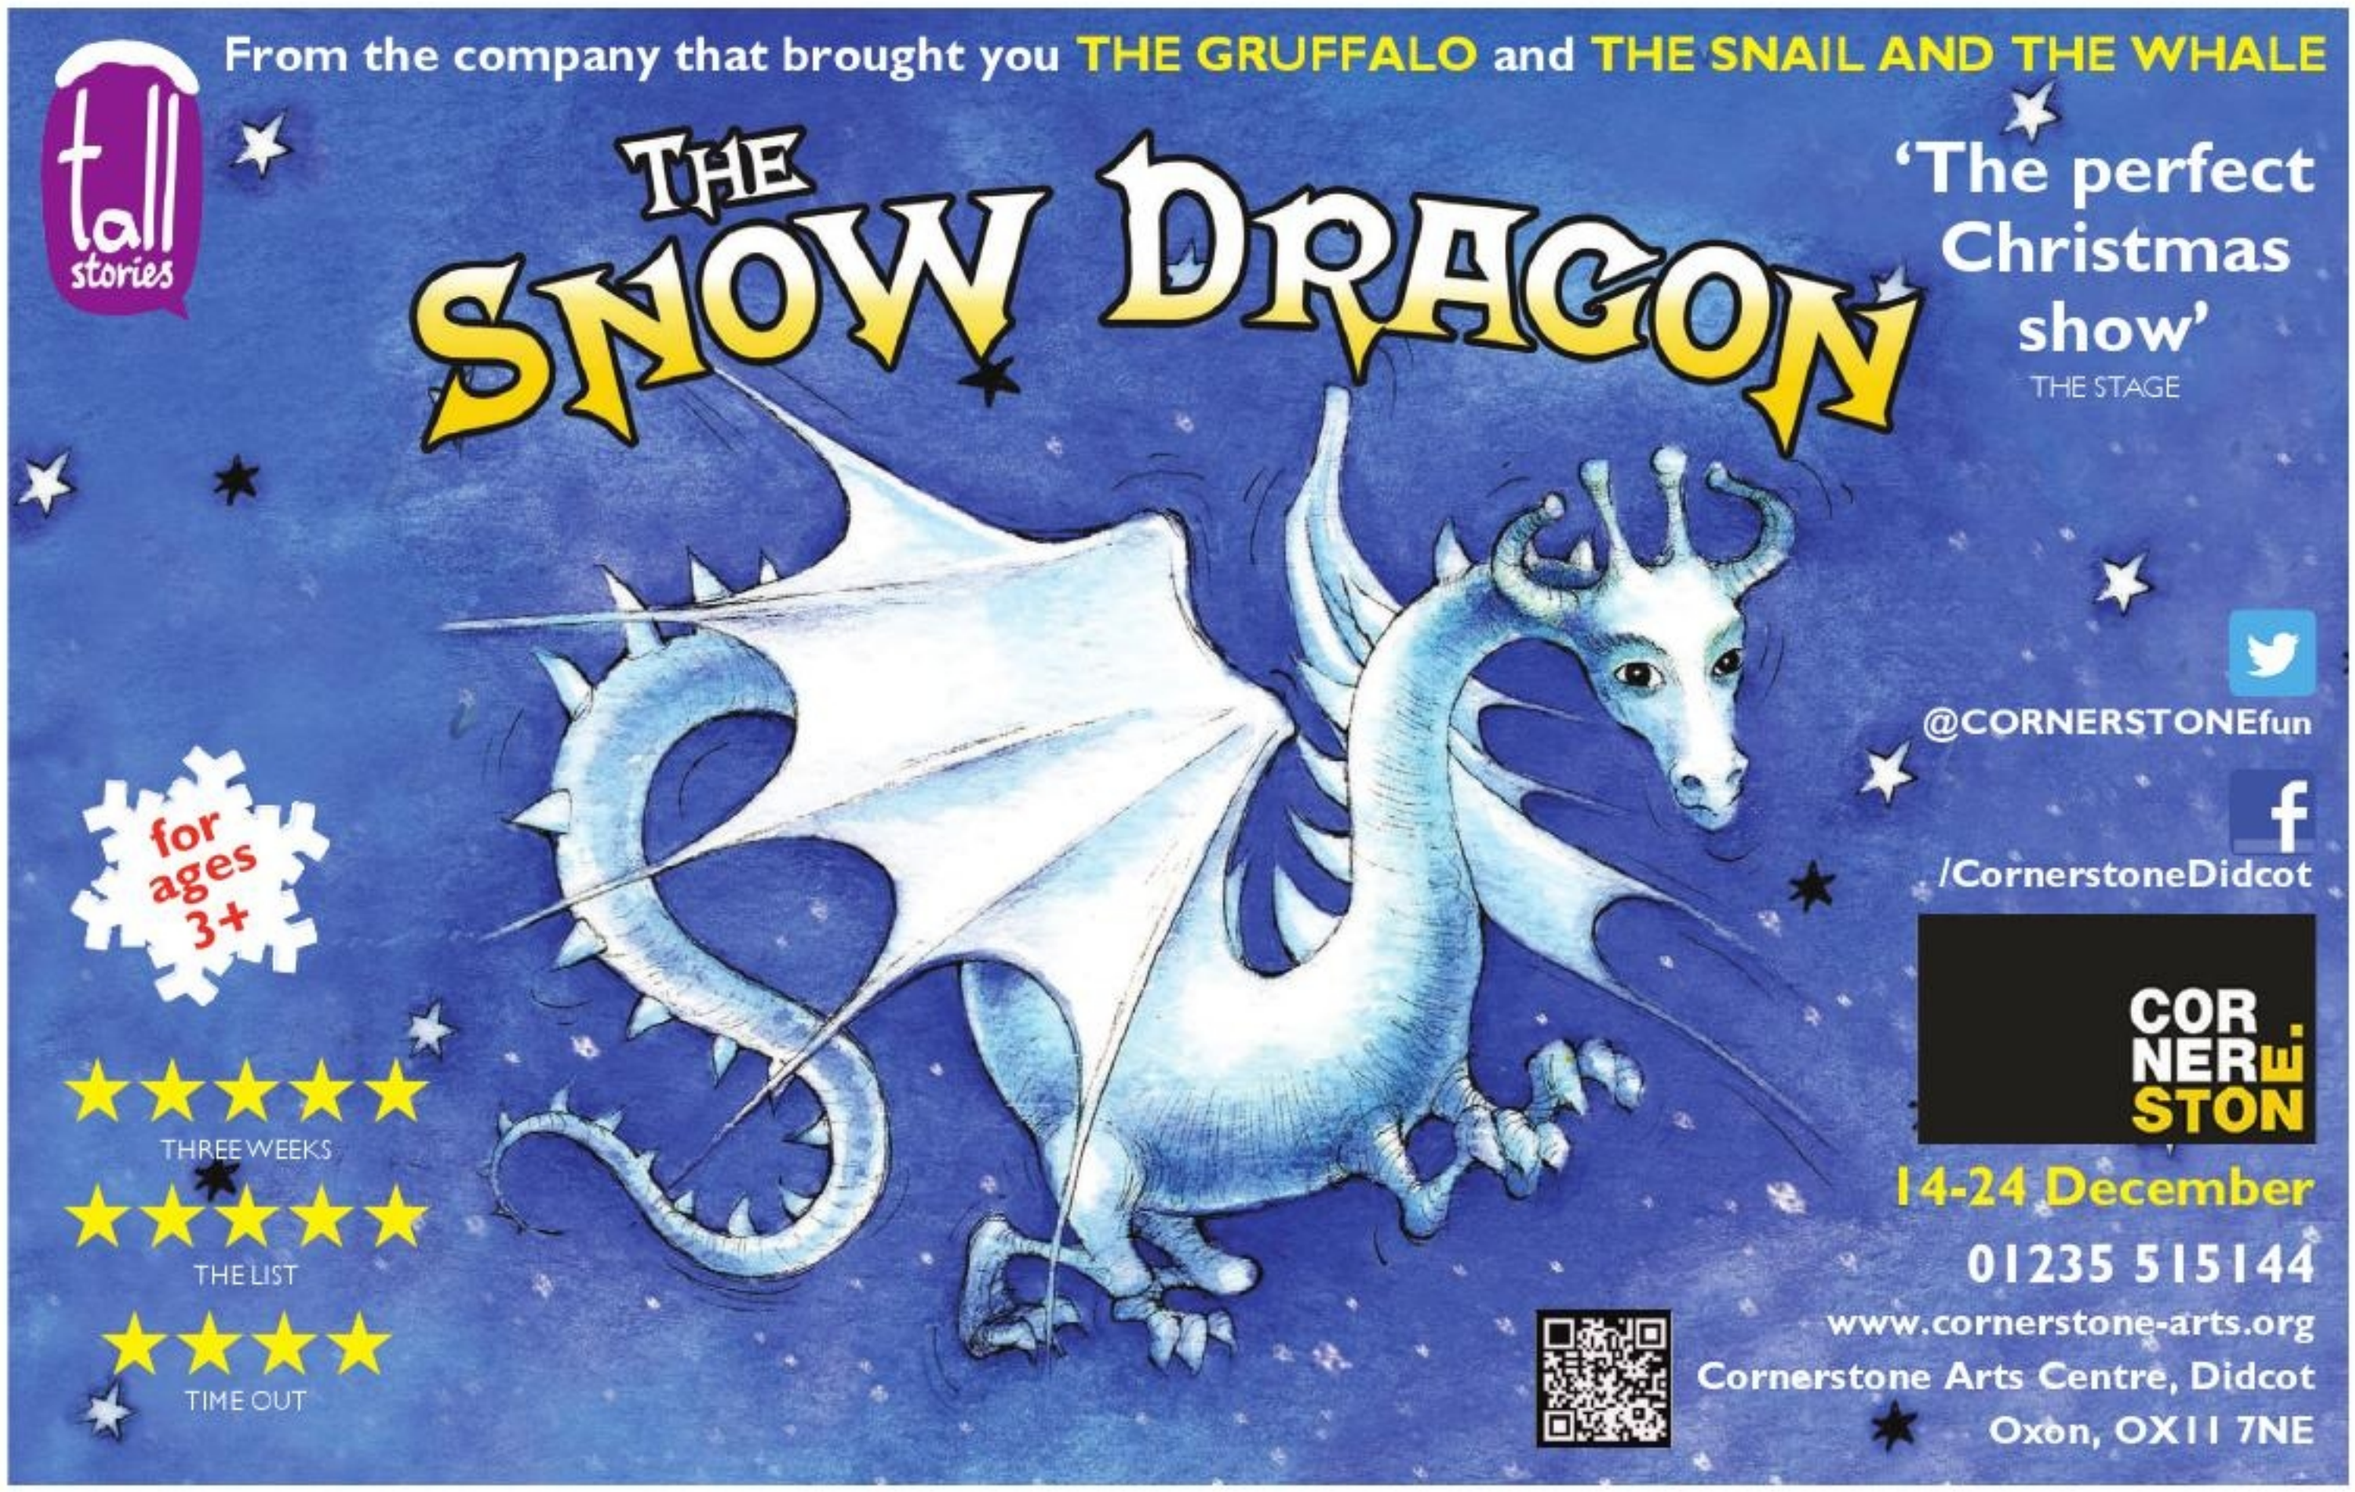
The Quentins

OXFORD based band The Quentins will be performing at the O2 Academy in Oxford tonight, December 17.

Consisting of Harold Sebastian Wragg, Nicholas Terrance Ormrod, Quentin Desmond Dercon and Jonathan Rufus Henry, the four friends will be supported by The Russian Cowboys, Esther Joy Lane and Strike One.

The Cowley Road gig starts at 6pm.

Tickets cost £9.05.



What's on | NEWS

Pantomime

JACK and the Beanstalk will be at The Beacon in Wantage on Wednesday, December 23.

The pantomime, performed by Talegate Theatre Company, will follow what happens to Jack when he sells his cow for magic beans.

Tickets cost £8 or £30 for a family of four.

A matinée performance at The Portway venue starts at 2pm, followed by an evening production at 7pm.

Final show

CARTERTON-BASED covers band Fly on the Wall will be playing their last ever gig in Bampton on Saturday, December 19.

The Romany Inn hosts the four-piece group showcasing rock cover songs and some originals.

The free gig starts at 9pm.

Rock and pop

BACK to Square One will throw in some Christmas songs alongside rock and pop covers for a show in Abingdon on Saturday, December 19.

The Stevenage-based five-piece will perform a free gig covering the 50s to the 00s in Market Place from 1.30pm.

Dear Father Christmas...

IT is nearly the big day and Father Christmas is in a bit of a pickle.

The presents are all muddled up, a bag of letters has been misplaced, the elves are panicking, and to top it all off the North Pole Polar Bear has gone missing.

But can Santa save Christmas?

Find out at the Oxford Playhouse in 'Dear Father Christmas'.

"I am playing Father Christmas amongst others, and at my grand old age I know an awful lot about him," actor Clive Duncan told the Guardian.

"I've always been intrigued as to how he can deliver all those presents in one night!"

The production is aimed at children aged three to six.

The play debuted for the year on December 10 and runs until January 3, during which Clive will step out on the Beaumont Street stage 48 times.

But shows are selling out fast.

"Theatre offers us storytelling in a different form to reading or film or TV - it is live and it is shared," Clive said.

By James Richings

"The great thing about theatre is that people in the same auditorium are seeing slightly different things depending on where they are looking and on how they interpret the story.

"The importance of family visits is how they can take it home and talk about it, as Christmas is an occasion which should be shared."

He added: "Expect a good story with lots of fun but also, as it is for young children, it is not too brash or loud.

"Lots of children easily get overwhelmed by loud music, bright lights and so on so this is much more gentle but really connects to the theme of Christmas.

"I was attracted to the production it is a very good example of what theatre for children should be. It has a good story, it is simple, it uses imaginative theatrical conventions and it isn't patronising."

Tickets cost £6 to £9.

Compere

James Cook is a professional comedian based in Birmingham, UK, with over 1,000 gigs worth of experience as an act and compere. His act mixes jokes and sarcasm with a quick wit and excellent improvisation skills that make him an accomplished compere.

*"destroyed my concrete belief that all comperes are twits"– eyeonmoseley.com

*"His quick tongue and dry sense of humour kept me laughing"– BBC Tees

Pierre Hollins relaxed amiability is defined by a compelling conversational style and absurd guitar posturing. His 'songs' are jokes, set to a guitar back beat, never travelling down the easy route of song parodies. He covers topics from love and hate, to sex and politics.

*"Always enjoyable and often inspired"– The Source

*"A must see.."– The Guardian

Headline Act

Otiz Cannelloni combines the illusion of magic and the wit of stand up to produce a hybrid comic creation. With a mind more suited to testing crash helmets, his performance fluctuates between sheer genius and downright stupidity.

Just when you suspect he doesn't have a clue, Cannelloni removes all doubt. When this man is on stage the dressing room empties, as the rest of the comics rush to watch and learn from his mistakes. It's taken years of practice to make something so simple look so difficult.

Despite various television appearances – The Stand Up Show BBC 1 - Stuff The White Rabbit BBC 2 - producers are prepared to forgive and forget, mostly forget.

"Master of Mirth and Minimalist Magic ...Delightful." TIME OUT

Caution: this performance will contain some adult humour as well as occasional bad language

F1RST CHOICE FOR YOUR FUTURE

Belshazzar's Feast

FOLK duo Belshazzar's Feast will coax out some Christmas spirit in Nettlebed on Monday, December 21.

By James Richings

Paul Sartin and Paul Hutchinson arrive in the village as part of their '2015 Stocking Fillers Tour' at Nettlebed Folk Club near Wallingford.

The two friends will be performing tracks off their latest album, 'The Whiting's on the Wall', as well as hits from their other five and some unheard material.

"It's always a pleasure to be coming back," 'Paul S said.

"I first came to the club (as a member of the audience) nearly 20 years ago, and we did a guest spot shortly after that.

"There are still a lot of old and familiar faces, so presumably some people have never left the building."

Named after their fifth album released in 2012, the duos 'Stocking Fillers' tour is coming to the end of their run of shows across the UK.

But there will be one more treat for Belshazzar's Feast fans, as the musicians will be performing live on the Claire Balding Show on Radio 2 on Christmas morning.

"We very much enjoy audience participation and interaction during the evening, be it joining in with choruses, heckling or buying lots of CDs," he told the Guardian.

"It goes without saying, although we're saying it, that we'd be nothing without our audience so if they appreciate the evening, all the better."

Paul S also revealed plans for a new album are well under way, but the trying to produce a new collection of tracks has come with a couple of problems.

"We've got some new material together for this tour, and are hatching plots for a new album next year," he said.

"However, one of our biggest problems is finding time to write or source material, as we are both busy with other projects."

The gig at the High Street venue will start at 8pm and tickets cost £13.

THE PICTURE OF DORIAN GRAY
A brand new adaptation of Oscar Wilde's only novel, The Picture of Dorian Gray, this superb production coincides with the 125th anniversary of its publication. Set in the decadent world of Victorian London, a handsome and narcissistic young man, Dorian Gray, becomes infatuated by the exquisite portrait that artist, Basil Hallward, has painted of him. He makes a Faustian pact that he will remain forever young while the picture grows old. Combining drawing-room comedy and gothic horror, this is a gripping and hugely entertaining theatrical event.

MR HOLMES
Academy Award nominee Ian McKellen excels in the iconic role of Sherlock Holmes. It is 1947 and the world famous sleuth has retired to a remote Sussex farmhouse, living in relative anonymity with only his housekeeper Mrs Munro and her young son for company. Cantankerous, demanding and frustrated with the misrepresentation of him in Watson's best-selling novels, he diverts his attention to an unsolved case. As the mystery deepens, Sherlock tries desperately to recall the events of 30 years ago which ultimately led to his retirement.

CARMEN
Following their visit to the Oxford Playhouse with La Traviata, OperaUpClose return with their smash-hit English language production of Bizet's wildly popular Carmen. This "gut wrenching spectacular" (City AM) went down a storm with audiences and critics in London last summer.
Carmen captivates and provokes, disturbing the composure of everyone she encounters. Sparks fly when she meets José, but as her passion cools, his turns to obsession. Unable to control his feelings or the woman who inspired them, he descends into violence. But Carmen will not give up her freedom for anyone.

REBECCA FERGUSON
Following in the footsteps of Billie Holiday and Diana Ross, singing superstar Rebecca Ferguson is back, showcasing her smoky vocals on her third album Lady Sings the Blues and touring throughout the UK in January - February 2016.
This is a stunning reinterpretation including the best of Billie Holiday's classic songs, some of which featured on her iconic record of the same name. Recorded at the world famous Capitol Studios in Los Angeles, Rebecca wanted to work there as it was where the legendary blues singer herself recorded.

GRAFFITI CLASSICS
16 strings, 8 dancing feet and 4 voices with 1 aim: to make classical music wickedly funny and fantastically exhilarating for everyone, young and old. Graffiti Classics bursts the elitist boundaries of the traditional string quartet with its hilarious all-singing, all-dancing musical comedy show. It's a classical concert, a gypsy-folk romp, an opera, a stand-up comedy set and a brilliant dance show all rolled into one! You will enjoy a broad spectrum of music from Beethoven to Bluegrass, Bach to Brahms, Strauss to Saturday Night Fever – all played with the Graffiti Classics virtuosity. There really is something for everyone and Graffiti Classics never fails to get audiences laughing, clapping and singing along.

Putting Land Rover to the test on a Swedish ice-track

• The new Range Rover Sport SVR

EXPLORER and Land Rover ambassador Ben Saunders swapped comfy snowshoes for a set of winter tyres to try out the new Range Rover Sport SVR on an ice test track near the Arctic Circle.

The test track was a full-scale replica of the Silverstone grand prix circuit carved in the snow on Sweeden's Lake Udjaur.

It was part of a new film released by Land Rover, which sees the world-famous adventurer learn ice driving in Arjeplog.

Ben tackled the challenge of driving on ice with instruction from Land Rover's experience instructor and former rally champion, Minna Sillankorva.

"I had an amazing day," Ben said.

"It was my first time driving on ice and the most fun I've had on four-wheels.

"The performance of the Range Rover Sport SVR is simply breath-taking and its poise in the corners was astounding given the slippery conditions."

The vehicle is the fastest and most powerful Land Rover to date, capable of accelerating from 0-60mph in 4.5 seconds.

But it was the car's ability to deal with tricky conditions that Ben was testing out.

He was helped by a sophisticated suite of features to enhance all-terrain performance, including the latest generation of Land Rover's advanced terrain response system.

This is when the car automatically tailors a range of vehicle settings to suit the conditions.

The car also has permanent four-wheel drive, while Land Rover's torque vectoring by braking system made the most of the conditions.

This uses the brakes to imitate the effect of a torque-vectoring differential, constantly balancing the distribution of engine torque between all four wheels during cornering to improve grip and steering responses and reduce under-steer.

The system monitors the car through a dynamic stability control system.

As it accelerates through a corner, the system uses sensors to detect the onset of understeer.

Faint levels of braking are then used to correct the path of the vehicle, while engine torque is transferred to the outside wheels, to maintain traction and steering control.

Mike Cross, chief engineer for vehicle integrity said: "The Range Rover Sport SVR is the most dynamic model we've ever produced and combining these qualities showcases the unique talents and expertise of our engineers."

Will Roofe be the key to unlocking the Blues?

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORD United could return to the top of the Sky Bet League Two table with a win at Wycombe Wanderers on Saturday.

The U's have been in flying form of late, after reaching the summit following a 1-0 win over Hartlepool United late last month.

Although they lost their grip at the top just two weeks later after a 1-1 draw with Carlisle, as Northampton Town surged in front to claim their crown.

Wanderers will pose a threat to United with the Buckinghamshire-based side two points off the play-off spots.

However, United now have captain Jake Wright back in the squad meaning their defence will be at full strength with Johnny Mullins, George Baldock and Joe Skarz all fit.

In terms of United's attack, manager Michael Appleton is facing a selection dilemma as Kemar Roofe could star either on the wing or up front depending on how United look to attack Wycombe.

Roofe and Chris Maguire started against Carlisle, however Danny Hylton and Patrick Hoban could be brought in and Roofe could move out wide.

Although United's winger options have excelled this season, with Callum O'Dowda making his breakthrough this year and Alex MacDonald in goal-scoring form.

Wycombe are heading into the game after drawing three of their last six and losing only once in a 3-0 hammering at Bristol Rovers.

United will fancy their chances but be weary of The Chairboys, who's young side have made it hard for teams at Adams Park.

A full-strength squad with added depth will help Appleton's Yellows on Saturday, but they will also be keeping a close eye on Northampton who welcome fellow title challengers Portsmouth in what is expected to be a close contest.

Whoever starts up front may prove to be the main difference between the two sides with top-scorer Roofe the most likely to get a chance to lead the line.

Goals galore for Oxford in big wins

OXFORD Hockey Club enjoyed a terrific showing last Saturday as the men's 1's secured an emphatic 14-1 win over Staines' 2's in the MBBO Regional 1.

In their last game before the Christmas break, the men ran riot against a lowly side with Johnny Campbell notching five of the goals and Sean Cox bagging a hat-trick.

There was also a brace for Andy Wynd and goals for Nick Mayne, Dan Bleach and Brandon Lee as goalkeeper Callum Chapman played outfield for a period and scored one goal as well as providing two assists.

The win means Oxford are now second in the table, five points beyond Oxford Hawks' 2's.

For the men's 2's it was a weekend to forget as they were battered 4-1 by OMT's 1's with Martin James grabbing Oxford's goal.

The club's ladies' 1's didn't play but the 2's recorded a fantastic 6-0 win over Wokingham 1's with Niki Forecast grabbing a hat-trick, Beth Williamson securing a brace and Pip Horlock rounded out the scoring.

In other club results the men's 3's won 3-2 over OMT's 2's and the ladies' 3's conquered Witney's 2's 5-3.

U's double signing boosts squad for next season's big 'challenge'

Lauren Allison and Madison Lee have both agreed new deals with the U's with Allison having been with the club for over five years now.

Allison has also been a big part of Oxford's progress in reaching the second divison in the Women's Super League whilst full-back Lee has pushed herself into the club's first team over the last few campaigns.

Club manager, Les Taylor said following the signings: "We're starting to get the squad together and look strong for the challenge ahead."

He said of Allison: "Lauren is very versatile and works tremendously hard for the side and always a threat to the opposition."

Taylor said that Lee is a young player with 'bags of potential' and is regarded as one for the future.

He added: "We are still looking to strengthen and add depth to the squad and will be doing that right though the close season before everyone reports back for pre-season."

United finished in the campaign last season after a strong period of results with next season set to get underway in the new year.

City director resigns in face of fraud charges

By Loughlan Campbell

A FORMER director of Oxford City is facing fraud charges as he resigned from the Marston-based club due to ill health.

Thomas Guerriero resigned as director of the club last Wednesday, just two days before the US Department of Justice announced that he is to face fraud charges.

The Security and Exchange Commission (SEC) have brought charges of $6.6m to Mr Guerriero and his US company Oxford City Football Club Inc, which has since had its assets frozen.

The SEC alleges Guerriero used 'pressure tactics' and a 'boiler room of salespeople' to raise more than $6.5m from inexperienced investors who claim they were misled by Guerriero's claims that the company was worth millions.

Scott Friestad, associate director of the SEC enforcement division, said: "Guerriero portrayed himself as one of the most powerful and influential CEO's in the history of Wall Street when he's really a penny stock fraudster mixing lies and verbal threats to line his own pocket with money from unsuspecting investors."

The SEC said Guerriero's company claimed to own an online university with students enrolled and projected profits of $495m over five years.

They also claimed that they would earn more than $238m over five years from the football club.

Guerriero owned a minority interest in the Oxford City, which has never turned a profit since he became involved with the club in March 2013.

A club statement read: "Thomas Guerriero resigned as a director of Oxford City on Wednesday due to continuing concerns about his health.

"Since his appointment to the board in 2013, he has worked tirelessly bringing sponsorship to the club.

"He has been seriously unwell for several months and has recently endured repeated surgery.

"The club thank him for his efforts and wish him a speedy and full recovery."

Oxford City FC are currently third in the Conference South.

Sport Bites

New signing

FOOTBALL: Oxford City have secured the signing of former Oxford United defender Matt Bevans (pictured).

The fullback signed for United back in July 2013 but was released over the summer by the U's.

Meanwhile, City beat Ebbsfleet United 3-1 in the first round of the FA Trophy on Saturday.

United beaten

FOOTBALL: Abingdon United fell to a 2-0 win to Hellenic Premier League leaders Flackwell Heath at Wilks Park last Saturday.

The results means United dangerously hover above the relegation places in 18th having played seven games more than Bracknell Town the team below them who they face on Saturday.

Blues blast past Grove in 39-5 drubbing

WITNEY destroyed Grove in a local derby in the South West 1 East on Saturday with the Blues running away with a 39-5 win at Cane Lane.

In damp and overcast conditions Witney headed into the contest looking to cause damage to their Oxfordshire rivals.

Witney started the contest playing against the win and immediately secured two converted penalties through Henry Lamb to make the score 6-0.

All of a sudden, the Blues were cruising after Matt Clarke crossed the line for his first try which Lamb then converted.

George Lewis then cross over for their second try, which Lamb failed to convert but the Blues were cruising.

Grove looked to head back into the contest and an assault was then broken down by Witney in their half before David Hyde went over for Grove

The away side then lost Callum Godfrey to a yellow card but managed to defend their lead well and Joe Chilvers went over for another try.

The scoring was rounded out after a superb solo try from George Lane with the result taking Witney into third in the table.

United held by resurgent Carlisle

OXFORD United were uprooted from the top of League Two on Saturday after a Chey Dunkley own goal led to them drawing 1-1 with Carlisle United at the Kassam Stadium.

U's keeper Benji Buchel stopped them conceding the lead early on after he made superb saves from Carlisle's Charlie Wyke, Anthony Sweeney and Jabo Ibehre.

Joe Skarz woke United up with a piledriver of an effort from 20 yards on 24 minutes and Dunkley headed wide two minutes later.

United then took the lead on 33 minutes with a sweeping pass from John Lundstram resulting in a barrelling run from George Baldock to cut it in for Alex MacDonald to drive home.

The Yellows' lead did not last long however as they failed to clear when Skarz was in the area and the left-back's effort was knocked back into the net by Dunkley.

Wyke should have given Carlisle a deserved lead straight after the half-time whistle with the striker firing over from just eight yards out.

New coach ready for 'challenge'

WANTAGE Town's new manager has spoken of the 'challenging' couple of months for his side that has seen them change manager and hover just above the relegation zone.

Stuart Cattell took the reins from Daniel Barry after he departed the club last month following a run of poor results.

The manager, who has been at the club for six years, also plays as a defender for the club and captains the side.

Since Cattell was given the role, his side have suffered seven defeats and two wins but the 27-year-old is confident that the club can turn around their form next year.

He told the Guardian: "It's been quite a challenging couple of months for us and we've had a lot really to get on with as we need to focus on the squad.

"Since I took the role I've wanted to help out and show that I've had the experience to prove my loyalty to the club and get us through these difficult times."

"It's been a very tricky task to go from playing to being a manager and we really need to focus on fixing our own game."

On Tuesday night, Wantage Town were beaten 4-0 by Tiverton Town at Alfredian Park leaving them 20th.

Dark Blues make it six in a row

OXFORD extended their winning rugby run over Cambridge at Twickenham last Thursday in a 12-6 win on a momentous day.

The Blues put in a resounding performance in 134th Varsity match in which Oxford secured their 61st victory in total, only two victories behind their fierce rivals.

Oxford's winning run is the longest since the 90s in which Cambridge won five times from 1994 to 1998.

It is also the second year running that Cambridge have failed to cross the Oxford line with the light blues grabbing their points from two penalties.

Fly-half George Cullen was Oxford's main man as he kicked all of the Dark Blues' points in a tense encounter that was broadcast live on the BBC.

Oxford had to contend with a nightmarish start in which captain Henry Lamont was forced off after just four minutes.

The Light Blues then grabbed their second penalty just before the hour mark with another Stevens penalty causing Oxford to hit back but Matt Geiger couldn't control a pass by the try line and fell into a heap.

A Cullen penalty then brought the scores level on 67 minutes before Oxford went in front with another three-pointer with six minutes to go.

Cullen then put the game beyond doubt with his fourth penalty with a minute to go to finish off Cambridge and secure the win, sparking rapturous celebration from fans.

Ballard has his say on changes

By Loughlan Campbell

DIDCOT'S new caretaker player-manager Andy Ballard says it has been a 'whirlwind' few months at the club.

The midfielder also said he is happy to be at the club for the long run, as long as he is content in the job.

Ballard took the role following Ian Concannon and Jamie Heapy's resignation last week over 'personal reasons'.

His first test as manager came on Saturday with a 1-1 draw at home to Yate Town as Lance Williams grabbed a goal for The Diddy.

Speaking to the Guardian, Ballard said: "It's been a whirlwind few months at the club recently and it's been a tricky situation for me to contend with."

Didcot got to the first round of the FA Cup only last month against League Two Exeter City in a match which drew in more than 2,000 to the Loop Meadow Stadium.

Concannon, Heapy and departing first-team coach Andy Sinnott recommended Ballard to chairman John Bailey for the role, which he graciously accepted.

Andy added: "At first, I was massively surprised but felt honoured to be a part of this club and I feel I've got the support of the chairman and the club.

"I've been at the club for over a year now and I feel I've got the experience that will really come in handy as I settle in."

The 30-year-old played over 250 games with Oxford City over two separate spells and transferred to Didcot back in October 2014.

He's to continue playing for The Diddy this season and says the club's board will make a decision in the summer in regards to Ballard continuing in his role.

He added: "What I know is that I'm here until the end of the season and possibly after. I would like to continue in this role as long as I'm still enjoying it.

"It's my first managerial job but I'm only 30 and I would have to make a decision on if I would keep playing until next year."
